

MARCH 15th 2012

Fiap Jean Monnet
30 rue Cabanis - 75014 Paris
Métro : Line 6 Glacière

Inscription: Meike Fink - meike@rac-f.org

Energy Scenarios for France and Germany – How to Link Questions of Social Acceptance with Scenario Creation Processes?

10h15 Welcoming
Meike Fink (Climate Action Network France)

SESSION 1: Scenario Building Processes – What is the Role of Stakeholders and Civil Society?

10h30 Possibilistic Foreknowledge and Policy Recommendations: Stakeholders' Contribution
Eugen Pissarskoi (Institute for Ecological Economy Research)

11h00 European Energy 2050 Roadmap & Stakeholder Consultation
Manfred Decker (European Commission DG Energy)

SESSION 2: A Participatory Approach - Decarbonization Pathways for Germany & France

12h00 A Methodology for a Collaborative Scenario Creation Process
Presentation of the collaborative scenario creation process used within 2 different countries with two different modeling tools
Eva Schmid (Potsdam Institute for Climate Impact Research)

12h15 Pathways to a Low Carbon Future in Germany - 2050: A Participatory Approach
Presentation of three long-term mitigation scenarios for Germany.
Brigitte Knopf / Eva Schmid (Potsdam Institute for Climate Impact Research - PIK)

13h15 Lunch

14h15 Pathways to a Low Carbon Future in France - 2050: A Participatory Approach
Presentation of several long-term mitigation scenarios for France.
Sandrine Mathy / Ruben Bibas (International Research Center for Environment - CIRED)

SESSION 3: Scenarios, Stakeholder Consultation & Political Decision-Making

15h15 Roundtable - Scenario Creation Processes: Transparency, Diversity, Harmonization
What is the Role of Scenarios in the Political Decision Making Process?
Moderation: Tim Nuthall (European Climate Foundation)

- Christian de Perthuis (University Paris-Dauphine)
- Brigitte Knopf (PIK)
- Sandrine Mathy (CIRED)
- Jan Burck (Germanwatch)
- Yves Maignac (négaWatt)

16h45 – Concluding Remarks
